Red Cross Mobilized Across Multiple Counties

(ALLENTOWN) – The American Red Cross is mobilized across multiple counties to assist those impacted by the severe weather and flooding brought to the area by Tropical Storm Isaias.

Red Cross teams are currently providing disaster support throughout Lehigh, Northampton, Berks, Carbon, Monroe, and Pike Counties and actively collaborating with local emergency management officials of each municipality to provide immediate support for displaced families, provide disaster assessments, identify local community need, coordinate distribution of clean up kits for residents affected by flooding, and support communities through recovery.

Flooding continues to be a problem for many in the path of Tropical Storm Isaias and we will be distributing clean up kits to residents at the following locations:

- Wednesday, August 5, 2020                      12pm - 5pm
Kutztown (Berks County) in partnership with the Kutztown Fire Department at Camillo's Restaurant at 264 Greenwich St, Kutztown, PA 19530
- Thursday, August 6, 2020                      3pm - 5pm
Allentown (Lehigh County) in partnership with Lehigh EMA, at Cetronia Ambulance Corps, 4300 Broadway, Allentown, PA 18104 *map attached***
- Thursday, August 6, 2020                      10am - 1pm
Stroudsburg (Monroe County) at Blue Ridge Hook and Ladder Fire Department 200 Rimrock Drive, PA 18360
- Thursday, August 6, 2020                      3pm - 5pm
Bethlehem (Northampton County), in partnership with Northampton EMA, at Bethlehem Township Community Center 2900 Farmersville Road, Bethlehem, PA 18020

Anyone impacted by Tropical Storm Isaias and in need of Red Cross assistance should call 1-800-422-7677.
