

To support our members, The Chamber is offering member businesses a FREE 20-minute legal consultation with one of our four Chamber Law Firm Partners.

- Gross McGinley FOR Business, Corporate, Employment and Real Estate;
- King Spry Herman Freund & Faul FOR Employment and Labor, Employee Benefits;
- Lesavoy Butz & Seitz FOR Business, Corporate, Real Estate, Estate Planning & Litigation Needs; and
- Zator Law FOR Estate Planning, Bankruptcy, Business/Commercial Law, Real Estate, Criminal Defense, and Workers' Compensation.

This new benefit is designed to provide our members with access to general legal guidance concerning the required safety regulations and procedures on the reopening of their business.

To take advantage and to connect with one of our firms, please contact Alison Pickel, SVP of Member Relations, at (610) 739-1512.

Disclaimer:

Information discussed during the Chamber legal consultation call is intended for general informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. The legal consultation call does not create an attorney-client relationship between the attorney and caller. Likewise, none of the information discussed during the initial consultation call is covered by attorney-client privilege. If more information or legal guidance is needed beyond the legal consultation call, you may formally retain an attorney who can examine the complete facts and provide a legal opinion on your matter.